

Washington, D.C. – U.S. Rep. Tom Rooney (FL-16) will attend and deliver remarks at the naming ceremony on Monday, December 17 for the Alto Adams, Sr. United States Courthouse in Ft. Pierce. Rooney sponsored the legislation, Public Law 112-180, to name the new federal courthouse in honor of former Florida Supreme Court Chief Justice Adams.

EVENT DETAILS

WHERE: Alto Adams, Sr. U.S. Courthouse
Dr. William R. Dannahower Atrium
101 South US Highway One
Ft. Pierce, FL 34950

WHEN: Monday, December 17
10:00 AM

“Chief Justice Adams set the standard for judicial excellence and community service, and he is remembered fondly throughout St. Lucie County and the state of Florida,” Rooney said. “The new federal courthouse in Ft. Pierce will be a great asset to the community, and it’s only fitting to dedicate the courthouse in honor of Alto Adams, Sr.”

Chief Justice Adams was the first graduate of the University of Florida College of Law to become a State Supreme Court Justice and Chief Justice. He practiced law in Fort Pierce from 1924-1938 until he was appointed as Circuit Court Judge for St. Lucie County. In 1940, Adams was appointed by Governor Fred P. Cone to the State Supreme Court, where he served from 1940-1951 and 1967-1968 and as Chief Justice from 1949-1951. Chief Justice Adams served as President of the Florida State Elks Association in 1937 and as Vice Chairman of the State Welfare Board. In 1937, he started a cattle ranch named Adams Ranch in St. Lucie County, which is still run by the Adams family.

###